Description

The apartment, newly furnished in 2021, on the guiet edge of the popular Schanzenviertel, impresses with its homely and cozy atmosphere. The skirting board heating ensures pleasant room air and even heat distribution. The Pitchpine-floorboards, the subtle stucco in the living and dining area and the beautiful window cladding also contribute to the feel-good atmosphere.

The living room, which is open to the dining room is furnished in light, cozy colors and offers enough space for cozy evenings. The very beautiful, 1.60 m x 90 cm dining table in teak and black is a timeless classic and the cool dining chairs in curry-colored velvet and black metal legs round off the new, trendy and fresh business look.

The 1.40 x 2 m bed with a high-quality 7-zone pocket spring mattress in H3 / H4 ensures optimal ventilation, good body adaptation and a restful sleep.
