The flat is located in one of Hamburg's most exclusive residential areas in a charming 1950s building and was completely renovated, converted and modernly equipped a few years ago. The entrance to the house has a total of 3 parties, one floor is only occupied by one party. The property offers absolute peace and pleasant intimacy. The flat is on the second floor and has large windows on three sides, so you can live in a friendly, light-flooded atmosphere. The flat offers a unique quality of living thanks to the many exclusive architectural highlights of the apartment and the exquisite furnishings. The full bathroom is equipped with a shower and bathtub, and the bathtub offers a unique view of the garden. The kitchen also has a large window overlooking a quiet side street. The elegant fitted kitchen is perfectly tailored to the design of the entire flat and leaves nothing to be desired. A semi-separated room opens from the living room, which can be used variably according to individual wishes: as a guest room, as a dining room or as a home office. The entire flat is furnished to a high standard, the house has a spacious entrance and a light-flooded staircase with a spiral staircase, a small architectural jewel. The house has a laundry room with a washing machine assigned to the apartment, a bicycle cellar and a large garden for shared use, as well as its own lockable cellar with a window and an additional refrigerator. The Alster is in the immediate vicinity, the Klosterstern subway stop is only 2 minutes away, and the Eppendorfer Baum promenade and shopping mile is a 5-minute walk away.
